

Shoreline - April 2019 (A/B) | Winner

◀ Back to combinations

Campaign Preview

HTML Source

Plain-Text Email

Details

New faculty awards

Four faculty members from California universities have been selected by California Sea Grant in the 2019 Special Focus Award research competition. These projects total over $250,000 in federal funding, for one year, designated by Congress. The recipients of this award include faculty from San Francisco State University, UC Riverside, and the University of Southern California.

Read More

2019 California Sea Grant State Fellows

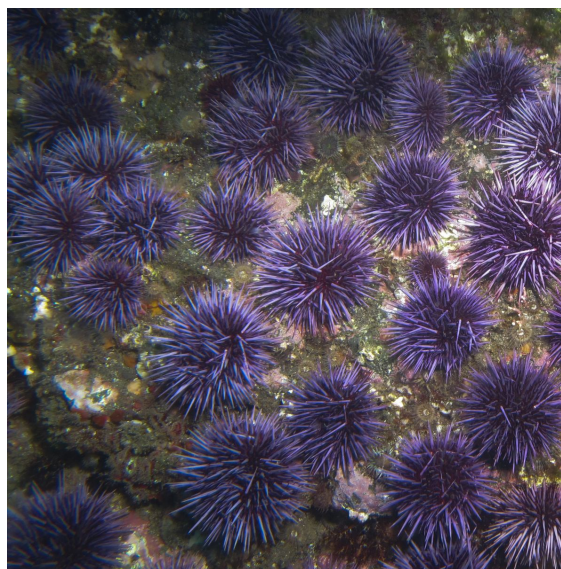

Twenty three California graduate students—the largest cohort to date—have been selected for the prestigious, annual State Fellowship. This opportunity provides emerging scientists with unparalleled and hands-on training at the interface of science, communication, policy, and management.

Keep Reading

With otters away, what keeps urchins at bay?

California sheephead and spiny lobsters may be helping to control urchin populations in Southern California kelp forests, where sea otters have been missing in the last decade, according to a new study in funded by California Sea Grant.

Keep Reading

Q&A on Humboldt Bay

California Sea Grant Extension Specialist Joe Tyburczy explains what the recent findings from the Humboldt

Bay Burke-o-Lator may indicate for the future of this ecosystem and how ocean acidification (OA) may impact shellfish aquaculture in the region.

Keep Reading

Latest from the blog

Who we're hearing from this month • Leslie Hart highlights her experience with the California Fish and Game Commission • Amanda Wasserman answers the Sacramento–San Joaquin Delta questions that you've been too embarrassed to ask • Elizabeth Ruiz follows the springtime migration of salmonids • Lisa Schiavinato explains how laws and regulations can be obstacles to the growth of the aquaculture industry

Facts & Resources

A new infographic resource from a team of California Sea Grant Extension Specialists illustrates all you need to know about harmful algal blooms and seafood safety.

Events

- Humboldt Bay Symposium
April 11-12 – Eureka, CA
- Fifth Ocean Climate Summit
April 18 – San Francisco, CA
- National Adaptation Forum
April 23-25 – Madison, WI
- 37th Annual Salmonid Restoration Conference
April 23-26 – Santa Rosa, CA

Sharing is how we grow, please forward to friends interested in marine and coastal science. 🐟 🐟 🐟

Copyright © 2020 California Sea Grant, All rights reserved.
You are receiving this email because you opted in via our website.

Our mailing address is:

California Sea Grant
9500 Gilman Dr Dept 232
La Jolla, CA 92093-0232

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

